

Schedule of Events and Topics

Dates	Times		Event or Topic	Assignment
				Get to know each other. Discuss expectations and how you can collaborate. Decide about the topic.
July 12: Tuesday	10:00– 17:30	Lecture 10.00– 12.00 Seminar 12.00– 17.00 ¹ Hand in assignment/ discuss progress in class: 17.00–17.30	Introduction to SNA Theoretical background Research questions	Topic proposal + preliminary research questions. Define dependent and independent variables; node, dyadic, network-level variables. Draft an outline with theoretical background, RQs, define DV and IV, levels.
July 13: Wednesday	10:00– 17:30	Lecture 10.00– 12.00 Seminar 12.00– 17.00 ¹ Hand in assignment/ discuss progress in class: 17.00–17.30	Data collection Ethical aspects Metrics and analysis	Prepare presentation including theoretical background, RQs, methods (ego networks/ sociocentric networks). Create a document with two nomination questions and at least two attributes.
July 14: Thursday	10:00– 18:00 Deadline 18:00!	Lecture 10.00– 12.00 Presentations: 12.00–15.00 Writing individual reflection 15.00– 17.00/18.00	Recap of the main topics + illustration of longitudinal SNA-research Final presentations Individual reflection	Hand in the presentation Hand in the individual reflection at 18.00

¹ Seminar: working on an own group project in small groups. During seminars (group work), the instructor is available for questions via email.

Assignments will be further explained during the lectures.

Assignments can be handed in via email to: jasperina.brouwer@rug.nl (mention in the subject: "Hannover")